

GROWING IN GOD PODCAST

GIG322 – Today We Changed the World

Hi, and welcome to the podcast. This is a special edition for our Growing In God podcast, as it is produced from a Zoom call that we at Hargrave Ministries have occasionally with our donors. When we have these times together and feel it is important for others to be a part of what we are discussing, we create the meeting into a podcast for release. So I hope that you will enjoy this podcast; and if you like being a part of these discussions, I would encourage you to go to our website at hargraveministries.org and join our Fellow Workers.

I want to do something a little bit different today. I just really felt this from the Lord, and I want to have something that is going to be effective. So like I said, I am going to put you to work today. I want us to really work on a couple of specific areas. First and foremost, what I want us to understand in doing this is that we are one here in this group, and our oneness is effective. I want to engage that oneness to move things in a specific direction in the realm of spirit, and to manifest things on the earth from the spirit world.

So I want to look at a couple of Scriptures. One is in Matthew the eighteenth chapter, verses 19-20. It says, “Again I say to you, that if two of you agree on earth about anything that they may ask, it shall be done for them by My Father who is in heaven. For where two or three have gathered together in My name, I am there in their midst.” So I think that works for Zoom calls. It just says “gathered together,” and we all gathered together here in His name, and He is in our midst this morning.

I like the King James translation of this verse. It talks about “wherever two or three agree as touching anything.” I like the sense of that from the King James because that is what we are going to do. We are going to use our knowing that we are here, one, gathered together in His name; and we are going to see things, imagine things, if you will, and we are going to touch those things, and we are going to move them in a direction or create them in a direction that I believe is where the Lord wants them to go. And I think that we can actually do that. We can focus on it together and see that manifest.

I was thinking about something that John always used to say, and then of course Marilyn constantly was saying it also: “Whatever you can imagine with your will behind it is what your spirit does.” So this is an operation of spirit, that we can imagine ourselves touching these specific issues, and imagine them moving into manifestation on the earth as we are seeing it happen. And if we can be one in that sense of imagination and one in the sense of our spirits together, these things will happen. And so I really want us to do that.

The way I want to try to do this is I am going to name certain things, and name where I believe they should go to; then we are going to take sixty seconds and we are all going to close our eyes together, we are going to lock our hearts and our spirits and our imaginations in together, and we are going to see these things happening for sixty seconds with the power of our will behind them manifesting and happening. Because whatever we imagine with our will behind it is what our spirit is doing; and our spirit is not just our spirit, it is all of our spirits together making this happen. We have this promise from God that what we touch together, “wherever two or three on earth agree about anything that they may ask” – anything that we may ask – “it shall be done for them by My Father who is in heaven.” So this is a very direct promise. This is one of the Scriptures that we came up with in our list of, “Did God really mean that?” Does He really mean that if we agree together as touching these things, that they will happen, not by us, by our Father who is in heaven?

So we are going to activate the reality of His Word. And it is not because of us or our power, it is because of God and His Word and what He said, and what Yeshua promised us in the Scriptures would happen. All right? Do we all agree on that? Wave your hands or something. Do some kind of motion that says we are one in this, we are all hearing it, we are all on the same page of this. Okay. And we will see how this goes.

I have about four or five things I want us to touch here. The first one I want to go back to is this issue about media and what is happening. I believe that the focal point of spiritual warfare right now that we as the Body of Christ are facing is media. And I want to simplify it so that it is not confusing: the war is over, “Does the lie of satan win the media war, or does the truth of God win the media war?” And I do not know, maybe some would disagree with this, but I think God’s truth is supposed to win. Imagine the impact on this planet – if we know the truth, the truth will set us free; imagine humanity on the earth right now being set free from all deception, all division, all anger, all hatred, all satanic influence, because truth like a tsunami covers the earth as the waters cover the sea and the lies of satan are swept away.

Because right now, it feels like the lying media and the deceptive media is doing a pretty good job taking this war; and I do not believe it, and I do not think that is what is going to happen. So if we can move together on this, and I am actually going to set a timer so that we do one minute together on this. So, you are going to imagine, you are going to close your eyes, you are going to see the truth of God sweeping away the lie off of this earth and out of this earth and out of the media; and we are going to see God’s truth come like a tsunami that blankets this world and sets humanity free from every satanic lie that is being broadcast in the media today.

Okay? Is that simple? It is all our imagination, and we believe that we are touching this reality. All right, let’s begin. One minute. We are one....

[Sixty-second period of silence]

Amen. We have what we have asked for. The truth of God, like a tsunami, blankets this earth and washes away every lie, and humanity is set free by the truth.

Are you guys liking this? Are you feeling it? Does it feel effective? All right, let’s look at something else. This one was really real to me, and it kind of ties into this first one. It is from Second Corinthians 10:3-5,

For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh, for the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh, but divinely powerful for the destruction of fortresses. We are destroying speculations and every lofty thing raised up against the knowledge of God, and we are taking every thought captive to the obedience to Christ.

I am going to read it again from the King James Version.

For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh: (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;) Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ.

Now, what I am tying this into is Matthew 16:19. He says, "I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven; and whatever you bind on earth shall have been bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall have been loosed in heaven." When I was waiting on the Lord about this, the Lord made it real to me that this is kind of a command, it is kind of a direction for our intercession; because it is saying, "Whatever has already been bound in heaven, that is what we bind." In other words, I do not think we just make up stuff that we want bound on the earth. We bind specifically what has already been bound in heaven. So can somebody tell me the biggest thing that is already been bound in heaven? Satan. The biggest thing that has already been bound in heaven is Satan himself; he has been bound and he has been cast down. And that is why I like the wording of King James, because it talks about the tearing down of the strongholds, the casting down of the imaginations. So I just think, "You know what? We can do this. We can see this happening."

Revelation 12 talks about this. It shows us this battle that took place in heaven, and Satan and his angels were not strong enough in the war with Michael and in the war in heaven, and they were cast out. And where were they cast out to? They were cast out into the earth. And so, I think what the Scriptures and what Yeshua is trying to tell us and what the Father is trying to teach us is, "Hey, this is what you bind." You know how the mother lion always goes and halfway kills the prey, and then turns the babies loose to finish off the job? It is almost like that picture when Yeshua went into the heavens and was seated at the right hand of the Father; it is like He brought down Satan, but then He goes, "Okay, I am casting him down to you guys, all of My sons and daughters who are in My image. Remember, I am the firstborn among many brethren? And so now you are going to finish this job. As I bound him and cast him down to the earth, I am just putting him in your playground. Now you are going to bind him, and you are going to cast him out off of the earth." And you say, "Where do we cast him to?" Well, the pit would be a great idea. So let's cast him into the abyss.

I think we can see in our imaginations this war that we know biblically took place in the heavens, and see Michael and the angels of God under the command of Yeshua the King binding Satan and casting him down to this earth. And it is time. It is time for us to see him cast down. We bind that which has already been bound in heaven, so we know that this works. We bind Satan and his angels and we cast them out of this earth; because believe me, they are at work, and we want to see that work end. And we can see them. Our instruction – we see that Scripture as an instruction: You bind on earth what has been bound in heaven; he has been bound, now we bind him on earth, and we cast him out of the earth as he was cast already out of the heavens.

So can everybody simply imagine? I mean, this should be not only easy but fun and wonderful and a delight for us to imagine this war and see ourselves finishing this job, by knowing that Satan and his angels have been defeated and are not strong enough, and we bind them and we cast them out of our atmosphere. This is tied into what we just did, so that truth can reign. Truth can reign because what is Satan? He is the lie; he is the lie, and he is the father of lies. And we get rid of him, and then the tsunami of the truth just comes and overwhelms the earth. That is what we brought to the earth in the first imagination, and now this removes the lie, the father of lies, every minion of the lies bound and cast into the abyss. And if anybody has a doctrinal disagreement with this, we will pray for you later. Okay, are you ready to begin? Warm up your imaginations, here we go. Let's do it. Start.

[Sixty-second period of silence]

Amen. All right, we are going to take another minute with this one, but I want to give you specific imagery so that we are all going to have the same imagery as we do this. That is Matthew 13. It talks about the fact that the angels, the angelos, were sent into the field – remember, into the earth – to pull up the tares, to bundle them, which is binding; it is the same word in the Greek, that they were bound. But angelos in Greek can mean human messenger as much as it can mean an angelic messenger. And so, we are going to see ourselves as the messengers that are binding the tares in the field, bundling them, and casting them into the fires of hell.

All right? So we will all be having the same imagery, the same imagination. One more minute. Let's do it.

[Sixty-second period of silence]

Amen. I love that one. The tares are removed by the root, bound and cast into the fire. Thank you, Father. Amen.

All right. Are you feeling effective with this? Beautiful. Okay, I want to do another one. One thing we wanted to touch on this morning and do is for Brazil. There is something happening with the justices and an exposure of corruption that could be very, very effective. I do not know if seriously, Silas, can you in sixty seconds give us a feel and imagery for this that we can have and work on? About the Supreme Court justices of Brazil...

Silas Esteves: Yes. Some of them came to the surface this week that they are connected to the drug dealers, to terrorists from Iran, and other organizations. We need to bring that down because it is part of this whole structure and system that is against Israel, against the US, and all those negative things. So we need to enforce them down so the truth can prevail. That is all.

Gary: I will give us an imagery with this one, because, again, the concern is these are the Supreme Court justices; so they can try to work it to where nothing happens, so that it does not matter that they are exposed. Here is the imagery that I felt: Let's see a judge's gavel slamming down on Brazil so that justice is going to come to Brazil in this whole situation. Can we see that? All right, let's do it. One minute. Begin.

[Sixty-second period of silence]

Amen. We care about justice. I think it is Isaiah 59:15-16, isn't it, where God was grieved because there was no justice and nobody was crying for justice. We cry for justice, and we see this administered to Brazil. Let there be justice in Brazil throughout the nation. Amen. Bless it.

All right, I think we can do two more. One thing that really is a burden to me is the midterm elections that we are coming up to. There are midterm elections in the United States; we are seeing elections coming up in Israel; we are seeing elections coming up in Brazil; and there may be other key countries or nations where this is taking place, I am not sure. But I just feel like it is difficult to know what exactly God wants or who are God's people, or whatever. But the Scripture that came to me that we could use for imagery was the Scripture out of Psalms, Psalm 2 verses 4-6. It says, "He who sits in the heavens laughs, the Lord scoffs at them. Then He will speak to them in His anger and terrify them in His fury, saying, 'But as for Me, I have installed My King upon Zion, My holy mountain.'" And I just think, you know, we do not have to claim to know every political candidate that God wants to use, or every individual, or what votes God wants cast, or what directions He wants things to go as far as amendments to state constitutions and stuff. But God knows. And what we can imagine is God laughing at man's plans, because everybody has their plans for socialism, and all these people, and they want this candidate and this law; and God is laughing at all of it. And He just says, "As for Me, I have installed My King upon Mount Zion." God has people; we know governments are made up of people, and God has His people everywhere and every place that He can anoint, just as He anointed David to be king and He set him in place. We do not have to know their names, who they are, where they are, what representation we are talking about in states or nations; we just see that the earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof, and the greatest prayer, the simplest prayer He gave us, is, "Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven." To me, that means He installs into places of authority and government who He chooses and who He wants there to bring forth His purposes and His Kingdom on the earth.

So let us see in our imagination God just planting, just establishing, installing His people and His will in every place in the United States, in Brazil, in Israel, and through all the nations. Amen? Let us begin. We are a force together believing this, Lord.

[Sixty-second period of silence]

Amen. Awesome. We believe it. We see it manifest. Amen.

All right, we have time for one more. Let's do one more. This one is maybe a little bit selfish, but that is okay. We are in a hurricane situation here, probably everybody is aware of that, and this is a category five hurricane. It has winds beyond 160 miles per hour, it is throwing out thirty-foot waves, and overnight it collapsed, regrouped, and now it is bigger than ever, just expansion-wise, the area that it is covering. It is well under the islands; it is south of us. So if Hawaii is here, it is running on a straight course directly under us going from east to west. We are getting zero effects from it here, no winds, no rain, no nothing, which is the way we like it. It is supposed to take a very sharp right-hand turn and go north, with the possibility of hitting Kauai, Niihau; and also do not forget, if you look at a map of the Hawaiian Islands, that even after the main islands there is this whole atoll of island chain that is part of the state of Hawaii, and they are very delicate islands. They have scientific research; it is where birds nest, where seals migrate to give birth. And these things are not mountainous, they are very close to the sea level; and a hurricane like this going over the top of these islands is going to be ecologically devastating. Most of people's focus is on the inhabited islands, but we cannot forget these areas.

So one thing we want to do is shove this thing further West. It is traveling East to West, and at some point it is going to do this hook turn and come up. I do not know if you remember Hurricane Iniki that decimated the island of Kauai years ago and really destroyed Kauai; but there is the same scenario as happened with that, where it stays really low. When it stays low like this to the south, it is in warm, warm waters, so that is why it can build and just become this outrageous hurricane. Then all of a sudden it makes this hook turn and comes up and goes through populated areas or whatever.

Right now it seems like it is moving further west. We want it to keep moving west before it makes this big hook turn, and we do not want it to hook back towards the east. When it hooks, we want it to go straight north. So what I want us to imagine is all of us, when you look at the picture of the hurricane, I want to imagine all of us together on this course of the hurricane just pushing it to the west, pushing straight against this thing, keeping it going from east to west. And as it is going, and as it starts to move north, it will disintegrate, calm down, turn into a category four, category three, and keep losing strength.

But let's really concentrate on keeping it west so that it does not hit population centers, and then in the meantime, later we can just be praying over the rest of the Hawaiian archipelago. All right? So we are going to do that and keep this moving. Go west, young man, go west. All right, here we go.

Let's push.

Amen. All right, we believe it.

I would say today we changed the world. Lord, all of this continues to manifest, we hold it. We hold this, everything we have done. The Lord does for us what we have asked, and His Presence has been with us. Thank you guys so much for this. I love it. I just feel like the anointing and the power of our hearts together is something that cannot be measured.

So I bless you guys and hope you have a wonderful week. We will be looking forward to talking to you. Let's dive into the Feast season. Get your shofars out and polish them up, and let's make a lot of noise for Yom Teruah and believe to see the Kingdom coming. All right? Love you guys very, very much.
